A Month of Services in September

(All Sunday morning services at 10:30 a.m.)

Sunday, September 6

Walking Together Religiously

Rev. Sara Hayman

1st Sunday Potluck

& Stephen Berger, Worship Associate

This month's worship theme is COVENANT: the practice of naming our commitments and keeping our promises. As a religious community, we "covenant" with each other to affirm and promote the principles of our Unitarian Universalist faith. What is covenant all about in our liberal religious faith tradition? What are its historic roots? This service & sermon will begin to explore these questions.

Sunday, September 13 We Gather Together: INGATHERING & WATER COMMUNION SERVICE

Rev. Sara Hayman

& Carol Rosinski, Worship Associate

UUUCE Choir will sing! At this Intergenerational Worship Service, we will welcome each other back from the busyness of summer and mark the beginning of our new program church year together. Please bring a small container of water from a place significant to you to add to the common bowl in our annual Water Communion Ritual, a mingling of separate waters into one.

4th & FINAL HIKE w/ Rev. Sara at Sand Beach & Great Head in Acadia at 1pm!

Sunday, September 20

Love Saves Stories

Rev. Paul Sawyer

For this service, guest worship leader Rev. Paul Sawyer will share stories from the Old Universalists to the present day, reflecting on the saving power of love—many different kinds of love, and many different ideas of what it might mean to be "saved"—to bring some concrete examples to some ideas we often talk about in the abstract, and to invite you to reflect on the "Love Saves" stories of your own life.

The Rev. Paul S. Sawyer is the settled minister of the First Universalist Society of Hartland, Vermont where he has served since 2006. Paul is a graduate of Dartmouth College, the Graduate School of Education at Boston University, and Harvard Divinity School. He lives in Hartland, VT with his wife Katy and their two children, Emma and Aidan.

Sunday, September 27 On Belonging to Each Other...

Rev. Sara Hayman

& Eileen Brennan, Worship Associate

The 7th principle of our UU faith calls us to acknowledge and honor the interdependent web of all existence of which we are all a part. At the heart of this principle is our faithful understanding of our intrinsic interdependence with each other (and all of life). What does it look like to live out of this awareness? How do we (would we) choose to relate to others if we truly believed we belong to each other?

Ministry Matters

As I write this, my heart is pounding in my chest and my eyes are filled with tears (tears of joy & awe): In a little over 25 days, on Sunday, September 20th at 3 p.m. in the beautiful sanctuary of our beloved UU Church of Ellsworth, I will know the incredible honor of being celebrated and installed as your Called & Settled Minister. All of you, the members & friends of UUCE, are invited to be there and I hope you will be. Several guest ministers & friends from New England & beyond will be there, too. Together, we'll mark & celebrate this momentous occasion with a beautiful worship service and what promises to be a lovely & elegant reception to follow. (Many, many thanks to the Celebration Committee that's working so hard!) I cannot possibly say how much this all means to me. I am incredibly blessed and grateful to be your minister. I hope & trust that you know that's true.

Recently, folks have asked me what it means to me to become "installed" as your Called & Settled Minister. It's an important question that I've begun to try answering for myself and for you. At this moment, these are a few of my thoughts and I look forward to more conversation over time about what our deepening commitment to each other means.

In August of 2011 I began serving as your <sup>3</sup>/<sub>4</sub> time Contract Minister (hired by the board, with my contract to be reviewed & renewed each year as desired), and we embarked on a journey together. I was your "new-to-parish-ministry" minister then, though known by many of you as your affiliated Community Minister engaged in Hospice Chaplaincy. You were a strong, lay-lay congregation that had just come through a year without a minister after the difficult ending of a 3-year Called Ministry.

From the outset of our relationship, we were both clear that we each had work to do: I needed to learn how to do parish ministry well. You needed some time to heal, and to grow again into a clear willingness & desire to work with a professional minister. At this juncture, I feel confident saying we have both been doing our work, both making our way, both learning important lessons and more intentionally charting the course we wish to be on together.

As I enter into my fifth year as your minister, I know more than before that this—being a minister here with you—is right. I know serving in a congregation is the ministry I most want to be engaged in. I know (and believe whole-heartedly) that we are good together; that we're committed in real and generous ways to be engaged in creating vital ministries at UUCE that we can believe in and be proud of, and my heart sings about all of this.

In accepting your invitation to become your Called Minister, I am naming (and celebrating) my deepened commitment to our life together as minister and congregation. My cup runneth over...

Yours, in shared ministry,
Sara

Installation Task Force

Hello Dear Congregants and Friends of UUCE:

As you see in the invitation to the Installation of Rev. Sara as our Settled Minister, you are also invited to a CELEBRATION of this occasion in the Community Room and RE Wing immediately following the Installation Ceremony on Sept. 20.

We, the Task Force planning the Celebration, invite you ALL to show your love and support of Rev. Sara by joining forces with us in putting on this joyous event.

Here's what you can do:

- * Help finish making decorations in the RE wing on Sunday, Sept. 13
- * Help with setting up and decorating on SATURDAY, September 19 at the church from 10 AM to 3 PM.
- * Contact the Task Force to find out what final items can be contributed or what else you can do.
- * Make a FINANCIAL contribution to help cover the cost of the celebration!!

As you all know, our church budget is quite TIGHT this year, and while we of course want to celebrate Rev. Sara's installation in style, we do not want to strain the church budget. Your contributions will ease that strain and will assure YOUR participation in this joyous event. You can write a check to UUCE with "Installation Celebration" on the memo line and give it Alison, or one of the Task Force Members. Cash is welcome too! ANY amount is a welcome contribution! Please contact Robin Lovrien (robin.uuce@gmail.com; 207-598-0468) if you prefer a personal conversation about a contribution or other help.

Be sure to put SEPTEMBER 20 on your calendar and plan to spend an unforgettable afternoon witnessing the Installation and celebrating afterward!

Thank you for ALL your Support and Help!

Robin Lovrien, Task Force Coordinator

Members: Evelyn Foster, Anne Ossanna, Mary Haynes, Vicki Fox, Liz True, Micky Worth

From the Board of Trustees

The Board of Trustees met on August 13th after taking a month off in July. We are looking forward to the start of the new church year even though it means the coming end of summer. We christened our new board covenant for the 2015-2016 year that was beautifully put together by Margaret Thurston with input from others.

At this meeting we were pleased to welcome congregation member Bettie Massie who gave a presentation on the centennial celebration of Acadia National Park. As a representative of the Friends of Acadia organization Bettie let us know of their plans to celebrate the centennial throughout the entire year of 2016. Bettie asked the church if we would be willing to become a centennial partner and gave several examples of what this might look like. Suggestions included planning an event in honor of Acadia National Park, donating money and creating and selling items. The Board of Trustees approved a motion to become a centennial partner and to put together a task force to plan an event. For more information on the centennial celebrations you can visit www.acadiacentennial2016.org.

The Board of Trustees also engaged in conversation around the upcoming installation service and reception for Reverend Sara. We heard an update on plans for the reception from members Robin Lovrien and Mary Haynes. It is shaping up to be a beautiful event, with delicious food, flowers and special items. Formal invitations will be going out within a week. Donations are welcome to assist in defraying some of the costs of this event. Please see Robin if you are interested in giving.

The Board of Trustees is currently making efforts to collect and compile all existing church policies for review and updating where necessary. We hope to have a comprehensive and current list of policies and their content available to everyone within the coming church year.

Finally, 2015 marks the 150th anniversary of the Unitarian Universalist Church of Ellsworth! This is very exciting and we are looking forward to celebrating this momentous anniversary in several ways. A subcommittee is being formed to plan ways in which this anniversary can be honored. If you would like to be involved in any way please reach out to Reverend Sara, John Fink or Evelyn Foster.

Happy September Everyone!

Amy Fiorilli, Board Secretary

Lifespan Religious Education

Late Summer Greetings from the Carl Stehman Wing, it certainly has been a joyful month. The children are enjoying Dr. SEUSS Theology as we explore our UU Promises through Dr. Seuss books and getting to know the adults who have volunteered to read the stories. Many thanks to our readers in August: Dawn Ray; Stephen Berger; Mac MacDonald; and Amy Fiorilli.

We also had a work session with Vicki Fox creating decorations for Rev. Sara's Installation Celebration. Vicki shared her patience and humor with the children as they created a musical string of lights. Thank you Vicki.

A special thank you to Lynne Marie who has been a constant help each Sunday. We all will miss Lynne as she heads out of state to further her education and can't wait to see her when she returns back during the holidays.

The RE Committee, under the leadership of Liz True, has been working hard planning for our RE fall offerings. Through the Tapestry of Faith curricula, our children will be exploring the same monthly themes as the adults. We are so excited about the upcoming year and looking for volunteer guides for our children ages 5 through 8. Volunteers will be asked once a month to guide a prepared lesson which will consist of a story, discussion and activity. Please see me if you are interested in volunteering or seek additional information.

I am so delighted that Jenn Ryan, Jody Murphy and Bill Clark will be the guides for our Tween's. Our Tweens will have a variety of purposeful experiences as they prepare for Coming of Age. Preparations are underway to explore and visit other faiths, gather with nearby UU Tweens, participate in Social Action projects, AND, just have some plain fun doing social activities.

I will be out of state visiting family from September 12-15. During that time I will have limited access to email, but can be reached on my cell phone at 47-6338.

September Religious Education Calendar

- September 12-15: Anne on vacation.

Political and Social Action (PASA)

End Violence Together

On Saturday, September 19, the Peace and Social Action Committee of UUCE is one of many co-sponsors of the second annual End Violence Together march and rally in Westmarket Square in Bangor, 1 to 4 pm. The Peace and Justice Center of Eastern Maine has brought many groups together as part of a national Campaign Nonviolence action. There will be drumming, speakers and music, followed by a march through downtown.

We want to:

- Underscore the connections between the violence of climate destruction, war, and poverty
- Call for an end to violence
- Build a culture of peace across the country

For more information, see campaignnonviolence.org or peacectr.org or a member of PASA.

Ushering at UUCE: An Opportunity to Serve

The church needs additional ushers to share the duties and satisfaction of being an usher at its services. As a long-time usher, I frequently experience the pleasure of welcoming newcomers (and sometimes embarrassed late arrivals). I help them to find seats where they would be most comfortable — whether it is in the back row, or near someone they know.

Ushers do a variety of other things, of course, including passing the microphone, taking the collection, and running the sound system—an activity that may be scary to some.

Each usher does not have to learn to do every task. If a person is not comfortable with doing something, that would be ok. What we are looking for is a group of people who would be willing to attend a few training sessions, learn more about what is involved, and then decide whether, and how much, they would like to help.

Currently the list of trained people is very short so that it is difficult for one of us to miss a Sunday. We would like to expand that list so that the duties can be shared, giving us all more flexibility.

If you are interested, would you please contact Rev. Sara Hayman or Office Manager Alison Stephens at the church office (667-4393), or me (see below).

Thank you for considering this way to help the church.

Red Lives Matter. Maine Racism is Red. Opportunities to STAND in SOLIDARITY

Sept 19, 11-12:30, Justice for the River Flotilla, Bangor Waterfront.

Come to paddle or to make your support visible for Penobscot Nation sovereignty and sustenance. We will stand with them in support of their right to the waterways surrounding their islands via original treaties and their right to determine water quality.

Oct 18, Sunday worship with Sherri Mitchell from the Penobscot Nation to discuss Racism followed by a 12 noon discussion on Global Racism and Climate, with questions from us.

Oct. 24, 25. Wabanaki Conference at COA. More details TBA. Doctrine of Discovery discussion.

Nov 7, Reach Ally Workshop, 9-3, to provide an opportunity for us to learn about indigenous history of America and Maine, the impact of the Doctrine of Discovery, and our own privilege. As a Reach Ally there are opportunities to continue in ongoing education re privilege and how we can partner with the Wabanakis to build alliances to honor the earth and its people.

Little known facts: Native Americans are the poorest of all races, have the highest incidence of police brutality, have significantly lower life expectancy than other races, and in Maine lost 98% of their people in the genocide of colonization. David Stannard in his book, The American Holocaust, says that between 7 -14 million Native Americans were killed in the first 200 years of European settlement here. He says that Hitler used the methods of genocide in our country as a model for his mass genocide of Jews. Racism in Maine is quiet and mostly invisible, because white privilege has hidden it across our history. It is time to tell the truth.

Fall Weekend Retreat Planned to Ferry Beach Please be signed Up to Go with UUS!

For the second year, friends of all ages from UUCE will spend the weekend at Ferry Beach, a Universalist Unitarian Conference Center on the coast of southern Maine. The center is located in Saco just steps from a beautiful sandy ocean beach and is surrounded by a pine grove. The dates this year will be over Columbus Day weekend-October 9-12.

The intention of the weekend is to enjoy and relax while strengthening old and new relationships. The planners have lots of options for activities but know that there will be times when some of us just want to linger over the delicious meals prepared for us, nap, walk on the beach or in the woods or sit in the many rocking chairs that line the porches. Favorites from last year being repeated are Dances of Universal Peace, morning meditation practices, chapel in the pine grove on Sunday morning, bon fires, swimming for the brave among us, a talent-no talent show. This year there will be special activities for the younger members, art and nature activities and did we say--complete leisure if that is what you need.

Please note--This year-unlike last year we have a solid cut-off date for registration. Reservations must be made by August 31st. After that date if we have space left it will be offered to our friends from the Belfast and Castine churches. Final payment is due by September 27th.

***To make reservations sign up at coffee hour with Helen Kazura or call Anne Ossanna (565-2057 h or 479-6338 c.) .. Some partial scholarships are available. We want this to be possible for anyone who wants to come.

Something broken, not working?

Let me know by filling out a Work Order. These are in a folder on the Bulletin Board in the Schwalbe Room (Community Room).
Just give it to Alison or put it in the Building Maintenance slot in the box on the wall opposite the kitchen.

Many thanks.

Loaves and Fishes News & Updates

August 21st - nine days faithfully covered by the UUCE crew led by Nina Turner! We have four more days to go and we have been doing so well that our pantry manager, Marien Hand, is willing to take her first vacation in over a year! We have additional helpers - such as Mark, Joey and Carol who keep the work flowing smoothly. We even have fun with each other as we get to know one another.

Marien Hand has been very complimentary regarding our UU Volunteers as reported by Nina. Ahem: we are conscientious, interact well with the clients, and are one of the few groups that stay until the cleanup is complete. The space is so well planned that it is easy to sweep through (and it hasn't rained yet to create mud).

Marien has implemented several extras. On Wed. mornings members of County Extension set up a table and canopy in front of the pantry. They present cooking ideas, along with samples of recipes prepared from goods the pantry stocks, give out free literature, steamer basket, refrigerator thermometers and more.

A local Girl Scout troop prepares birthday gift bags for young children who come to the pantry with parents.

Recently we had excess zucchini, corn and kale on a Friday which might not have survived the weekend. Marien spent part of her weekend preparing, blanching, packaging and freezing these vegetables. Many clients left with these gallon size frozen portions of the vegies, particularly the kale. Four days are left; our August is almost over.

Come enjoy a new fun and helpful atmosphere. And please recall that Nina and Sue will be manning the Loaves & Fishes food booth at the Labor Day Blue Hill Fair, selling home-made pies to raise funds for L. & F. Please come by and see us from 1 to 4 pm...And, you might give us a hand for 5 minutes or so. And, a pie or two would help a lot (so far we have our two).

Sue & Nina

** Save this Date!****

The ordination of Dawn Fortune will be Sunday, November 1 at 4 PM in the sanctuary of the Unitarian Universalist Church of Belfast, with a reception to follow. All are cordially invited to attend. Stay tuned for further details in a future newsletter.
