

NEWSLETTER

First Unitarian Society of Ellsworth and Hancock County, Maine

Volume 2 No. 7

March 1970

Rev. Richard B. Gibbs, Minister

THE PULPIT

Horace said, "And I bid the learned writer look on life and manners and make those his book."

Life is Comedy and Tragedy, Hostility and Love, Defeat and Triumph. Of these we speak now through Easter.

Mar.

1 WHEN THE HALF-GODS GO

Comedy, says Aristotle, is representing men as worse than they are.

8 DEALING WITH HOSTILITY FEELINGS

We all feel hostile at times. What do we do to contain them?

15 LOVE SOMETIME FAILLETH

Can mankind be transformed? Religion says it can.

22 BE NOT ANXIOUS

Every age is one of anxiety to those who live in it.

29 HOPE WORKETH MIRACLES (Easter)

"Man begins to move toward recovery the minute after disaster has struck." M. Gumpert

ALLIANCE

Mar 4 Business meeting
Hostess: Mildred Gibbs
Chairman: Eleanor Shea

18 Enterprise Luncheon
Hostess: Dorothy Noe

25 May Basket Meeting
Hostess: Helen Raymond

WE SALUTE

Mrs. Eva Osgood on her 90th Birthday!

HELP WANTED

The Gibbises gotta move. House being sold. Any clues as to available rentals let us know immediately. Distance? Anywhere with a few miles we guess. At least three bedrooms required. One has to double as church office and guest room.

DISCUSSION GROUP

PEACE CORPS

Mar. 5

Mrs. Louise Tweedie will tell of her experience in the Peace Corps in Central America.

At the church 8 P.M.

Mar. 19

A Radical Approach to Education
Book SUMMERHILL as background.

At the church 8 P.M.

 CHURCH SCHOOL NEWS ***

The wonderful world of HANDS is the theme of this month's church school. Leaders: Richard Adams and assistant
Opening service 10:20
Nursery 10:30

DENOMINATIONAL NEWS

Biafra:

Service Committee's hospital and school buildings intact but interiors looted completely and staff gone. Painful rebuilding job ahead. Help needed $

Toronto:

Canadian churches (including ours) feeling financial pressure of taking care of the 60,000 USA draft resisters and army deserters who have come there in last three years. Could use help $$

Portland:

District Executive, Robert Sallies will be on a part-time basis now due to cut back in denominational finances. Available when needed.

POLLUTION, ANYONE?