WHAT ELSE IS NEW ?

It is a gloomy moment in history. Not for many years - not in the lifetime of most men who read this paper - has there been so much grave and deep apprehension. In France the political cauldron seethes and bubbles with uncertainty.
Russia hangs as usual like a dark and silent cloud upon the horizon of Europe; while all the energies of the British Empire are sorely tried, (and are to be tried more sorely,) in coping with the vast and deadly Indian insurrection, and with disturbed relations with China.

Of our troubles no man can see the end.
