

NEWSLETTER

First Unitarian Society of Ellsworth and Hancock County, Maine

Volume 3 No. 14

January 1971

Rev. Richard B. Gibbs, Minister

THE PULPIT

(If the weatherman cooperates)

Jan

3 SOME UNCHANGEABLES

For our reassurance on New Year's

10 THE EXPENDABLES

We talk about some who have manned the posts of sacrifice

17 WHAT UNITES US

Glue? scotch-tape? A perennial question.

24 WHOM I HAVE BELIEVED

Kinda makes you think doesn't it?

31 EGGHEADS, DO-GOODERS, RADICLIBS

This was snowed out last month. You can use your snow-checks

ALLIANCE

Jan

6 BUSINESS MEETING

Hostess: Eva Osgood
Chairman: Catharine Skolfield

20 FOOD AUCTION

Hostess: Sarah Smith
Chairman: Virginia Remick

27 Open Date

Discussion Group

NUCLEAR POWER

Jan

7 and Pollution, by John Bromley.
At the Silver's 8 P.M.

21 WHO IS MAD?

The search for a new approach to psychiatry. Article in Jan. 1971 Atlantic. To be led by Helen Boucek, travel permitting?
8 P.M. Place to be announced.

THERE ARE SMILES THAT MAKE YOU HAPPY

All by way of saying the Alliance is pleased with the Christmas sale and supper. This seems to mean that they made money? By the way: the three new fellows in the kitchen were impressed with how Mssrs Smith, Shea, Dunbar, Noe, et al have systemized that production line over the years.

COME AS YOU ARE...

as some of the restaurants say. Question raised by skiers about coming to church in ski clothes. Why Not? Be careful where you/^{PUT} the skis. Don't want to decapitate someone.

 CHURCH SCHOOL *****

The two Family Festival so far have been great. Everybody enjoyed them. The decorations have been superb and the food plentiful. Nex one Feb. 14th Valentine's Day.

HOSPITAL BUSINESS

Horace Pease and Elton Black have been over in the Bangor Hospital with heart problems. Horace right after Thanksgiving and Elton acouple of weeks ago.

IN MEMORIAM

Fred W. Beal (76) long time member and past president of this church.

IT'S A-BUILDING

Golly! More folks showed up for the carol sining and covered more ground this year in spite of near zero weather. It's great fun, said he, from his place by the fire. Good party agreed his warm-weather friend!

DEAR DIARY

Today: Broke my snow shovel. No offers of any needed. We will burrow out the tunnel..

...
YYY HAPPY NEW YEAR TO YOU YYY