

NEWSLETTER

First Unitarian Society of Ellsworth and Hancock County, Maine

Volume 4 No. 21

NOVEMBER 1971

Rev. Richard B. Gibbs

THE PULPIT

Continuing our quest for information, insight and direction we will talk about the weird and wonderful world of religion in America today.

Nov

7 SOME AMERICAN RELIGIOUS PRACTICES
You wouldn't believe!

14 PRAYER WHEELS, YOGA AND BROWN RICE
Why the present interest in the East?

21 CIVIL RELIGION IN AMERICA
Maybe it is America's Real Religion as Powell Davies claimed!

28 ONE BIG CHURCH
Ecumenicity. Is it anything more than what someone called "cuddling together for comfort?"

ALLIANCE

Nov

3 John Raymond, Program
Hostess: Augusta Bromley
Chairman: Mildred Gibbs

10 Afternoon Party
Hostess: Jean Beal
Chairman: Corace Beal

17 Silent Food Sale
Chairman: Ruth Beal

DISCUSSION GROUP

"Nourishing"

Nov

3 Continuing the theme: Discovery at the Gibbses, 21 Pine St. 8 p.m. Helen Boucek, leader

17 "Accepting." place announced later

SPRING AHEAD FALL BACK

Or don't forget to set your clock back Saturday night. If you arrive in town too early Dunkin Donuts probably is open. This should be a boon to you folks who come many miles in on the coming winter mornings.

-----
What a beautiful Fall it's been, huh.

P-s-s-s-s-t

In response to the question - how we doin on fund drive - Chandler Richmond with the cautious enthusiasm of the typical fund chairman, replied "we are doing well so far." You figure it out.

HAVE YOU SEEN OUR SIGN

On the lot? Arthur Pio and Helen Silver are responsible for this good looking site sign. Now if we can think of a way of slowing down the autos so occupants can read it. Pot holes! Tack in road!

PEOPLE PEOPLE

Lou Collier is home with fractured spine. Masons off on annual Florida trek. Bob Noe's freewheeling thru Europe. Estelle Smith moving back here. Remicks moved in town: Main St.

CHRISTMAS CARDS

The Service Committee has resumed making Xmas Cards available. You order as many as you want and send a contribution. A sample will be on board this Sunday.

ADVERTISING

Some feel that this year especially we should keep our name before the public. Yet without straining the budget they havesaid they will take one adv or four. Cost in Ells.American: 1.45 col inch or 4.35 a week. 17:40 four weeks. Helen Silver has agreed to accept the money. We should go to first of year anyway.

THE SUNDAY NIGHT DISCUSSION GROUP

November 7th upstairs at 57 Main St. in office of Action Opportunities. The Topic will be "Celebrations and the Family in the Unitarian Universalist tradition. Meeting is open for anyone to discuss the contributions of liberal religion to a child and his family life.

GREAT TIMING

When James R. Wiggins, former ambassador to the UN spoke to us on the 24th just hours before the crucial China question. We certainly felt knowledgable a bit tho maybe uncertain how we would vote.