

NEWSLETTER

First Unitarian Society of Ellsworth and Hancock County, Maine

Volume No. 4 Issue 22

December 1971

Rev. Richard B. Gibbs

***** The Pulpit *****

Dec

5 WOMEN'S LIBERATION
"What do women want? Dear God!
What do they want" - Freud 1933
Discussion after service.

12 AN ECOLOGICAL EXPERIMENT
Guest speaker: Dr. John Wood of the Walters Ecological Station, Palermo

19 CHRISTMAS
A Family Festival

26 ONE SMALL STEP OR A GIANT LEAP
Moral issues of this decade

-----
ALLIANCE

Dec

1 Business Meeting
Hostess: Ruth Beal
Chairman: Evelyn Lord
Speaker: Pearl Schubert

-----
DISCUSSION GROUP

"Sharing"

Dec

1 Last in Discovery Series
At Pease's 7:30 p.m.
Helen Boucek: Leader

-----
GET OUT THE LOZENGES

It's time to tune up for the annual Carol Sing. Once again the faithful will tromp the hills bringing cheer to folks. Meanwhile, back at the ranch, the faithless will sit and sit. You are welcome to join the singing or sitting group. Meet at the Gibbises at 7:30. Bring flashlights. Cocoa, or something, will be ready when you come back. Wednesday December 22nd.

FATHER'S ROLE IN THE FAMILY

At the Sunday Night Discussion Group
57 Main Street Sunday December 5th 8 p.m.
Sharon Booher: leader.

FOOTNOTE

Ask Chandler Richmond, our Fund Chairman, how we doin? He just smiles. Now you know as much as ye editor. I hate that "ye" business! Goes with "everyone had a Jolly Time." Phew. Or Phocie.

****
YYYY CHRISTMAS SALE AND SUPPER YYYY

At the Hall December 9th. Sale starts at 2 p.m. Supper at 6:30 Tickets on sale at Alexanders Drug Store. Some will be on hand at the church Sunday.

Remember: We don't have as much room at the Hall so reservations are imperative. Adults: 1.75 children under 12 $1.00
Supper in charge of Lewis Smith, Fred Shea, Bob Noe and draftees.

THE BUILDING COMMITTEE

Reports that it has strung twine among the trees on the lot. This outlines our propose building and helps to get a mental picture of the ultimate orientation

ADVERTISING

This was a voluntary project so we note there is nothing in the kitty for the coming month! 4.35 one week. 17.40 for a month. Make check to church and state it is for advertising.

FAMILY FESTIVAL

Sunday Dec. 19th Children and Parents of the children will share with the congregation another Family Day. Theme: "The Time of Miracles."
After the service there will be the Tree Singing around it. Santa will make an appearance and may have some goodies.

We all are invited to help decorate the tree by bringing some ornament - which becomes a swap. You bring one you take one. This is if you wish to play.

One more thing...Bring sandwiches if you wish to join us after wards. Coffee will be provided. Parents will anyway. Be? Do?

REHEARSAL

For the children after school Tuesday the 14th at Lucie Wareham's on S&H Drive. Call, if necessary, Helen Silver for details

-----
NEW MINISTER IN BANGOR

The Rev. and Mrs. Irving Stevens have been called as co-ministers of the Unitarian Church in Bangor. They are from the Universalist Church in Stafford, Conn. We welcome them. And, hope to attend the Installation, on January 9th. Time to be announced.