

NEWSLETTER

First Unitarian Society of Ellsworth and Hancock County, Maine

Volume 4 No. 27

May 1972

Rev. Richard B. Gibbs

 THE PULPIT *****

Everybody talks about identity crises. It's nothing new. Everybody whether articulating it or not has to come to terms with the questions below:

- May WHERE AM I
7 In time and space
- 14 WHO AM I
Would I recognize Me
- 21 WHAT AM I
As Society sees us
- 28 WHO'S MY NEIGHBOR, REALLY
Ultimatum of the Universe

ALLIANCE

- May ANNUAL MEETING
3 At Sarah Smith's 31 Pine St.
- June RUMMAGE SALE
8

DISCUSSION GROUP

- May Speaker: Chandler Williams on Drug 11 Detection and Law Enforcement. At the Dunbar's 69 Washington St. 7:30
- 25 BEACON PRESS AND PENTAGON PAPERS
A recording of UUA President
Robert West on the problems that publication of the papers has presented. 8 p.m. at the Gibbses

SUNDAY NIGHT DISCUSSION GROUP

- May
7 Helen Silber reviews the book:
Values and Teaching, by: Raths-
Harmen and Simon. 57 Main St. 8: PM

WINTER WANDERERS HOME NOW

Now if everyone will stay put for a bit we should see normal congregations before people take off for the summer!

ANNUAL MEETING

Of the congregation Wednesday May 10th. Covered Dish Supper preceding it. Important votes - building plans and the probable costs are on the agenda. 6:30.

NOMINATING COMMITTEE

Presents the following slate:
Officers for one year trustees for three.

President	Lewis Smith
Vice Pres.	Gordon Ramsdell
Secretary	Ann Black
Treasurer	Ray Royal

Trustees	John Bromley
	Irving Copp

Incumbent	Leona Royal	'73
	Allen Strout	'73
	Evelyn Lord	'74
	Bert Magnus	'74

RECORDS BROKEN

Two thousand-eight hundred MAYBASKETS MADE THIS YEAR. What a field of color they'd make if all laid out on an armory floor! Congratulations Ladies.

EASTER FLOWERS

In Memory of: Edwin E. Royal -
Mr. and Mrs. Edwin L. Royal
Neal A. Raymond

MARRIED

David Pease and Susan King April 1st

PERSONAL

Estelle Smith is bragging about her 14 mile hike for the March of Dimes. She should!

OPEN MARRIAGE

Is the title of a book we just read and liked. We had to find out what some are talking about. It's by Nena O'Neil and George O'Neil. Pub. Lippincott $6.95 at THE BOOKSTORE.

THINK SUMMER