

First Unitarian Society of Ellsworth and Hancock County, Maine

Volume 5 No. 34

March 1973

Rev. Richard B. Gibbs

THE PULPIT

- Mar
4 HOW MUCH SACRIFICE IS GOOD
Hidden altars, Holy Grails and the Black Mass!
- 11 THE EXCUSES YOU USE ARE YOU
"I never promised you a rose garden
- 18 YOU HAVE TO BEND DOWN SOMETIME
Hand me down my walking cane
- 25 SOME CALL IT A PETER PAN RELIGION
Old proverb: Many gates to heaven.
And some of them are for children!

ALLIANCE

- Mar
14 Silent Food Auction
Hostess: Ruth Royal
- 21 Maybaskets
Hostess: Dorothy Noe
- 28 Maybaskets
Hostess: Eleanor Shea

Discussion Group

- Mar
8 August Strindberg's Influence on the Modern Theatre
Speaker: Louis Collier
At the Gibbises 7:30 p.m.
- 22 Crisis: in People, Ecology
Technology and Imagination
Speaker: Horace Pease
At the Peases 7:30 p.m.

COLIN SUMMERS

We all are saddened by the passing of Colin. As he once said about another's passing, "He was what civilization is all about."

BUILDING

The workmen are starting on the sanctuary. The laminated beams are here and being hooked together.

The small building is looking most ready. The furnace is in and working. The walls of sheet-rock are up. Areas for toilets, coat racks, and general milling around can be walked through.

We stood in the office and mentally put a desk here, a cabinet there and had it pretty well furnished before we woke up.

It's really is exciting to detect the dream beginning to take final shape. Go ahead! Look in on it at this stage. The workmen are well used to kibitzers.

WHICH REMINDS US

Chandler Richmond says that slow as every thing seems (usual hibernation) and pain filled as we think of taxes don't forget that the merry tune of hammering on the hill is bringing us closer to pay-up time to the contractor. So...!

SOUTH OF THE PINE TREES

Ruth Beal, Corace Beal, the Fred Masons, the Dunbars, John Bromleys next. Others have been and are back. Wintering in Maine are the faithful!

BOARD OF TRUSTEES

Monday March 5th at Ray Royal's 7:30 pm
That's 60 Court Street

HAPPY BIRTHDAY

To Mrs. Eva Osgood as she hits her 93rd.
On February 28th

Mister: "What do you think would go well with purple and green golf socks, dear?"
Missus: "Hip boots."

First Unitarian - Universalist Building Fund
Headquarters 60 Court St., Ellsworth, Maine